

Ruling Elder Ordination and Installation

Call to Ordained Service

(One) As many of you as were baptized into Christ have clothed yourselves with Christ.

(All) There is one body and one Spirit, just as we were called to the one hope of our calling.

(One) In baptism, Linda Pavich was clothed with Christ, and are now called by God through the voice of the church to enter and continue in ministries of service and governance, announcing in word and deed the good news of Jesus Christ.

(All) We remember with joy our common calling to serve God's Kingdom, and we celebrate God's particular call to our siblings in Christ.

(One) We are all called into the church of Jesus Christ by baptism and marked as Christ's own by the Holy Spirit. This is our common calling—to be disciples and servants of our servant Lord. Within the community of the church, some are called to particular service as deacons, as elders, and as ministers of the Word and Sacrament. Ordination is Christ's gift to the church, assuring that his ministry continues among us, providing for ministries of caring and compassion in the world, ordering the governance of the church, and preaching the Word and administering the sacraments.

Baptismal Reaffirmation

(One) Ordination calls the whole church to renewed commitment, and reminds us all to bear gladly the yoke of Christ given in the covenant of baptism. Let us, therefore, reaffirm our baptismal vows, with Linda as she renounces all that opposes God and God's rule and affirms the faith of the holy, universal church. With one invisible body, let us together confess our faith.

(One) Do you believe in God the Father?

(All) I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth.

(One) Do you believe in Jesus Christ, the Son of God?

(All) I believe in Jesus Christ, God's only Son, our Lord.

(One) Do you believe in God the Holy Spirit?

(All) I believe in the Holy Spirit.

Renunciations for Ordination

(One) Trusting in the gracious mercy of God, do you turn from the ways of sin and renounce evil and its power in the world? Do you?

(Elder) I do.

(One) Do you turn to Jesus Christ and accept him as your Lord and Savior, trusting in his grace and love? Do you?

(Elder) I do.

Will you be Christ's faithful disciple, obeying his Word and showing his love? Will you?

(Elder) I will, with God's help.

Anointing for Ordination

(One) Linda, child of the covenant, I anoint you with the mark of the cross that you may remember your baptism and be thankful.

(Elder after her anointing) Thanks be to God.

Congregational Questions

(Clerk of Session) Do we, the members of the church, accept Ken Nall and Linda Pavich as ruling elders, chosen by God through the voices of this congregation to lead us in the way of Jesus Christ? Do we?

(All) We do.

(Clerk of Session) Do we promise to encourage them, to respect their decisions, and to follow as they guide us, serving Jesus Christ who is Head of the Church? Do we?

(All) We do.

Pastoral Prayer

God of costly grace, pour out your Holy Spirit on Linda and Ken that they may be your faithful elders in the church. Give them prudence and sound judgment, wisdom and courage to order the life of the church in obedience to your Word. Nourish them in the life of the Holy Spirit, that they may exercise the ministry of discipline with humility and compassion. Guide them in governance, on this session and in every court of the church, that they may be servant leaders following Christ who came not to be served but to serve, and to give his life to set others free. Give them joy in their walk of faith and a sure sense of your abiding presence for their work of ministry.

Statement of Declaration

(Clerk of Session) Representing the one, holy, universal and apostolic church, the session of Community Presbyterian Church now ordains and installs Linda Pavich and installs Ken Nall to retroactive and active service on the Session for a three-year term, ending in 2028.
